

Dr. Yanez is the Principal of MY Workforce Solutions, a WBE/MBE/SB certified consulting firm that aims to connect business to education to help create pathways to jobs. Before becoming a business owner, Dr. Yanez held various leadership positions for business associations, community colleges and has become a leader in Workforce and Economic Development. Pre-Covid, Dr. Yanez worked as the Workforce Development Manager at Citrus College and initiated a relationship between the Citrus and Proterra Electric Bus Manufacturer to create a signature training program in alternative fuels. From 2014 to 2019, she worked as the Director of Education Pathways for the San Gabriel Valley Economic Partnership and served as the intermediary between education and business, bridging schools to employers. Dr. Yanez was elected to the Rio Hondo College Board of Trustees and served from 2001 to 2005 and later served as appointed Commissioner to the Los Angeles County Workforce Development Board (WDACS) from 2016 to 2019. Today Dr. Yanez looks forward to contributing to the success of the Los Angeles Latino Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Yanez is a Doctor of Education with a focus in civil justice from CSULB and Master of Public Administration with a focus in inter-governmental management from USC.
